Is it in your home?
RADON GAS:

You will never know until you test your home.

American Lung Association of the Upper Midwest

Leech Lake Housing Authority

Radon Migration System

Radon-Resistant Construction

Regarding radon mitigation or new systems and can provide information on installing these systems. The Leech Lake Air Program is to install a Radon Mitigation System. These systems vary in location, size, and cost. The Leech Lake Air Program provides the next steps would not decrease using these simple inexpensive steps. In a case where high radon levels would be found in your home, the LLAP offers information in taking these inexpensive steps that can be taken to reduce high radon levels. There are simple, inexpensive steps.