Boozhoo! I am very pleased to bring you another issue of my quarterly newsletter. It is truly an honor to share the accomplishments of our dedicated employees and the activities the Band is engaged in.

The passing of the holiday season symbolizes the completion of the 2013 Calendar year and the end of another quarterly reporting period. I am pleased to report that we conclude our quarter by sustaining a trend of positive growth and organizational development for the Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe.

As I have reported in the past, the Band is taking steps towards expanding our Health and Human Services capabilities through coordinated planning, relationship development and internal capacity building. This quarter we have invested $3.5 million dollars into the Band’s chemical dependency infrastructure, strengthened our knowledge of the healthcare industry, and secured resources to invest in future healthcare opportunities.

This quarter we also distributed a payment of both the Salazar settlement and the annual rebate, which totaled $575.00 for each enrolled band member including our children. We also celebrated the holidays with the annual Thanksgiving turkey distribution, a hugely successful $50,000.00 toy drive, and community New Year’s events in each district.

Looking forward to next year’s holiday festivities I pleased to share that the Chippewa National Forrest has been selected to provide next year’s Christmas tree for the Capitol in Washington D.C. The Band will be coordinating with the local forest supervisor and surrounding school districts to select a tree and ornaments symbolic of the region, its people, and our stories.

Speaking of stories, I am proud of the legacy we are building for the future of our nation. We have made huge progress in such a short amount of time. Progress that is, and will be visible across the reservation’s landscape; progress we can accredit to competent, capable & effective self-governing institutions and the community’s desire to rebuild a nation.

Accomplishments and Activities

Health and Human Services

The Band has invested a substantial amount of time and financial resources exploring strategies to improve the Reservation’s healthcare system. The RBC authorized the administration’s pursuit of this initiative back in Fiscal 2013.

We began our efforts by meeting with key staff from regulating agencies to discuss the Band’s intent to reinvest program income generated from tribal healthcare activities back into our HHS Service Infrastructure. Specifically an $12 million dollar surplus derived from chemical dependency treatment services. We also discussed gaps in service and the opportunity it gives us to create solutions.

Unfortunately, there is a great need for chemical dependency services such as In-Patient treatment, Halfway House Services, and Medication Assisted Treatment Therapy here on the Reservation. Fortunately, we possess the cultural knowledge, applicable skill, and now, the fiscal capability to address these needs, which is why we have allocated $3.5 million dollars to improve the infrastructure of our chemical health programs.

In November the RBC approved the expansion of the Men’s Halfway House and the Construction of a new opioid treatment facility. The administration pursued these investments to assure our chemical-health programs continue to provide sustainable services to patients dealing with addiction, while the Band explores additional solutions to community health such as youth prevention, inpatient treatment & Eldercare which we plan to fund or have funded with the remaining $8.5 million dollar surplus.

We are currently exploring the development of an adult inpatient treatment facility and the construction of a Health and Human Services complex that will house our tribal clinics, recreational center, and the Band’s Health and Human Services administration. The RBC also authorized the pursuit of these activities in fiscal 2013.

Since then the Administration has engaged a number of internal expertise, consultants, and industry professionals to develop a strategy moving forward. We have formed a Centralized Billing Taskforce (CBT) to maximize the billing for our tribal health services and assure the fiscal viability of our current projects. CBT meetings have become important to understanding specific funding sources and our ability to expand into other areas of healthcare.

On December 19th the administration met with representatives from the Red Lake Inpatient Treatment Program to discuss their experience providing residential treatment. This meeting helped us look at some of the challenges of establishing inpatient care from an operational standpoint. However, we were also pleased to hear about their success and thankful for their consultation.

Shifting away from chemical health the Band is also exploring solutions to physical health and wellness. In November the administration was invited by Sanford™ Health, President, Dan Olsen to discuss how Sanford can better serve the reservation & region overall. Mr. Olsen shared many of the new services at Sanford.

Services of interest to the Band included diabetic wound care and the cardiac unit. Leech Lake diabetics suffer amputations as a result of wounds that don’t heal properly, which is why we discussed the importance of working closely with the Cass Lake Indian Health Service (IHS) to assure our tribal members have access to this sort of care.

We also discussed the cost of traveling to Fargo or Duluth to receive cardiac treatment for our tribal members and how working with IHS will reduce this cost. Finally, we shared the Band’s intent to improve the reservation healthcare system, activities we are engaged in, and the possibility of collaboration in the future and invited Mr. Olsen and his staff to tour our Healthcare facilities.

On December 20th The Band was joined by Mr. Olsen and Mrs. Noreen Smith, Executive of the Cass Lake IHS to learn how we can work collaboratively to address the reservation’s healthcare needs. Some of the immediate concerns expressed by IHS revolved around contract health and Sanford’s billing. Patients referred to Sanford from contract health were having issues with medical bills after payment from IHS. Both parties agreed to find a resolution to this issue.

The remainder of the day was spent on tour of the Reservation’s Healthcare facilities and the IHS hospital. During the tour we discussed developing new services, such as Advanced Life Support for the Leech Lake Ambulance and partnering to provide specialty services. We discussed the relationship between health and economics and our vision of a vibrant community built on caring for our citizens. Partnering with local healthcare providers will strengthen our capacity to do so, by creating opportunities and providing increased knowledge of the healthcare industry.

I would like to thank our Health and Human Services programs for the work they do in the community and for hosting our visitors as we toured the reservation. I would also like to congratulate the Health Division on the Expansion of the Cass Lake Fitness Center, which will add an additional 2688 square feet to serve an additional 2000 visitors each month.

Hunting & Fishing distribution and Salazar Settlement…

On December 5th and 6th the Band distributed the Annual Rebate & Salazar Settlement to Tribal members at various locations throughout the reservation’s districts. Checks were also mailed on Dec 13th to tribal members off the reservation.

This year each tribal member received a check for $575.00. $200.00 of this payment was derived from proceeds generated by the Band’s Hunting and Fishing Agreement. The additional $375.00 came from the Band’s Salazar Settlement funds. The same amount of funds was also reserved for enrolled minors. These funds, and any future payments, will be distributed to them with interest when they become adults.

The distribution of payments to tribal members can be tough. Some of our tribal member’s addresses change frequently and we need to update them in our accounting system before we can process payment. This creates a delay in the time a tribal member receives his or her check. It also creates a hardship on the accounting department because a huge number of checks are returned in the mail and eventually need to be voided until we make contact with the recipients.

I would like to assure all of our tribal members that did not receive their refund that we are working to obtain your correct addresses and assure all payments are received as soon as possible. If you have not received your payment please contact the Band’s accounting or enrollment departments to request the appropriate address update form.

Community Holiday Activities
On Saturday December 21st and Monday December 23rd, the Band distributed toys to community families at the Bena Community Center and the Cass Lake Facility Center. Event organizers chose to distribute toys in Bena because of the central location and to reduce any travel hardships from outlying communities. While this event was open to all districts a separate event was scheduled for district III the following Monday.

Toys were also distributed to urban families at the Twin Cities LIC Christmas Dinner on Dec 18th, which was held at the Minnesota Chippewa Tribe Building in South Minneapolis. Funding for this year’s toy drive was made possible by charitable donations from the Band’s employees, The LLBO Tax Commission & Leech Lake Gaming.

The reservation also enjoyed some pretty positive and exciting New Year’s Eve celebrations at the Cass Lake Facility, Ball Club, and Bena Community Centers. Families enjoyed fun, food and games with help from volunteers and the Leech Lake Tribal Police.

Tribal members from the Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe have hand harvested wild rice for generations. This is an Ojibwe right of passage handed down from our elders to our youth to help ensure one of our most important cultural traditions. Our wild rice is 100% natural and 100% organic. Revenues from the sale of wild rice goes toward purchasing next years crop from tribal members.

2014 CAPITOL CHRISTMAS TREE ANNOUNCEMENT
The Chippewa National Forest has been selected as the provider for the 2014 Capitol Christmas Tree to Washington, D.C. in 2014. A generation has passed since a tree from Minnesota has visited our nation’s capital as part of the nation’s holiday celebrations.

To kick-off this exciting news, Smokey Bear and students from Cass Lake-Bena Elementary joined us in this special announcement held at the Chippewa National Forest’s Supervisor’s Office in Cass Lake on Wednesday, December 11. As part of the afternoon, students helped create decorations for the Christmas tree that greets visitors when they come to the office as a way to showcase what the ornaments might look like in 2014.

Beginning in 1964, the Capitol Christmas Tree has been a tradition in Washington D.C. Since 1970, a national forest has been selected with providing the tree that will represent the U.S. Forest Service and the state which it comes from. In 1992, the Chippewa National Forest and Leech Lake Reservation sent a 60-foot white spruce along with thousands of ornaments made by local school children.

“We feel honored to share our local forest and community on a national stage; representing everything that makes Minnesota a great place to live, visit, and experience,” said Forest Supervisor Darla Lenz.

Groups, organizations, and individuals interested in helping with the year-long celebration and planning for the 2104 Capitol Christmas Tree can contact Chippewa National Forest either by phone at 218-335-8600 or by e-mail at R9_Chippewa_Public@fs.fed.us

Tribal College Scholarship Fund Expands

Last year a scholarship endowment was created in the names of LeRoy Staples Sr. and LeRoy B. Fairbanks for students at the Leech Lake Tribal College by Leech Lake’s District III Rep.

As the second year of the endowment begins, a few lucky students will receive funds to help with the financial burdens of earning their education.

Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe Representative LeRoy Staples-Fairbanks started the endowment in 2013 as his way to help those who are helping themselves earn not just an education but something that helps the whole community through their hard work, studying, and enlightenment that comes with a greater understanding of academics. With this hard work and effort comes not only a classroom awareness but a deeper knowledge of yourself and your community and the history therein. Congratulations to the recipients and their benefactor.

Anishinabe Values Essay

Students at Cass Lake/Bena and at Bug O Nay Ge Shig answered the following prompt at the end of a unit on Anishinabe legends.

We have read Anishinabe legends that tell us the values that we are supposed to live by: respect, love, sharing, bravery, humility, honesty, etc. Write about someone that you have met who is a good model of a person that follows some of these traditional values.

Josh Bussier

A person that I know that is a good representation of the Anishinabe legends is my mother. She shows respect to everyone and gives to those in need. She is hardworking and does the best she can do to support her family and friends, and while doing so she always makes us laugh, whether it’s a story or something she did. My mother is a good role model and someone I look up to.

Caleb Duoos

I think Levi Brown follows these values pretty well. I’m sure Sherman taught him a lot of these and I am glad he has taught them to me. Levi is an all-around good guy to anyone.

Ciao Fisher

My grandma Molly has shown me many values. She has shown me how to respect my elders and my teachings. She also showed me that sharing and love are very important when it comes to family. She taught me bravery through conquering her own problems and looking them straight in the eye, and taking them on. She told me that honesty and telling the truth gets you farther in life. To her, I give thanks for being a positive role model, with traditional teachings.

Brendan Humphrey

My grandpa Wally is a good example of a person who follows these values. He loves his family. He spends a lot of time hunting and fishing with our family. He respects other people and animals. He never takes more than what he needs. When we set net or clean fish he always shares fish and gives some to my aunts, uncles, and dad.

Joe Jourdain

My grandpa Bob Jourdain has taught me basically everything I know outside of school. He has always been there for me. He helped not only me, but everyone that has seen him. My grandpa taught me respect, without respect I wouldn’t have met the people I know today. He also taught me to care for people even if I didn’t like them for some reason. Caring for another person no matter what always gives a positive attitude to people around you and repays you in the long run.

Jarred Allen

My grandma Joanne Ortley follows these values. She respects everyone and they respect her back. She loves her whole family even if she’s mad at them. She shares almost everything she has. She is brave; she never gives up on something if she is determined. She never brags about her being better than anyone. My grandma is honest about everything. She won’t tell us a lie if she doesn’t want someone to know something.

Taydria Hurd

I have met this young old lady. She taught me how to love, respect, share, and be brave, humble, honest with others and me. Her name is Bernice Hurd, my grandma. Well my great grandma. She taught me a lot while growing up.

Corvette Northbird

My grandma is a person who lives by these values. My grandma is one of the most generous, caring, loving, and brave people I’ve met. My grandma is never afraid to do what’s right. She puts herself before anyone. She gives back to our community.
Devery Staples

My uncle Gabbi Headbird was a man who represented all of these. He died a few years ago but if I had to choose a person it would be him. He taught me and my siblings to respect, love, and be honest about everything.

Samantha Robinson

My great aunty Babe was a very respectful, loving, sharing, brave, and honest person. My aunty Babe was very kind to everyone and loved the people in her life. She was honest about herself and others. She was very brave because she would do so much for her family and friends. She has passed now. R.I.P aunty! I love you and I miss you.

Jasmine Morris

My grandmother is the nicest, most caring person I know. Her name is Suzie. She would take anybody into her house and take care of them if they needed a place to stay. She wouldn’t ask them for anything in return. I have so much respect for her. I love you Gram.

Ryan Nabors

Rob Tibbitts was my Ojibwe teacher. He uses all the values of the native Culture. Rob does a lot of traditional things like attending powwows, and some sweats. As long as I remember, he has always been a good man and Ojibwe teacher.

Jason Yates

My grandpa O.J Shastid was, in my eyes, the greatest man ever. He has taught me so much about life. He taught me how to learn from his mistakes so I don’t have to make the same one. But here lately, I’ve been letting him down big time. He taught me wood work and how to treat people. He taught me the values of a real man. There wasn’t a day that I spent with him that I didn’t learn something. When he would teach me something new, he would say, “Come here son, I’m going to show you an old Indian trick”. What I would give to spend one more day with him and hear him say those words just one more time.

Damon Staples

My father, Donavan Staples, lives by all of the Anishinaabe values. He always puts tobacco out and makes sure his family knows where they came from. He has hounded into me since I was young that I always base my decisions on the values similar to the ones I have recently read. On top of all that he also expands his native knowledge by reading about our people. He seeks guidance from elders as well as going to ceremonies and practicing the midewiwin ojibwemowin ways. He speaks Ojibwe decently which is a lot better than me. For all of this I admire him the most.

Lauren Lee

In have known Renee since 7th grade. Renee is the type that will be nice at first but only respects you if you truly deserve it. She is a very loving person if you don’t judge her and accept her for who she is. When needed, she’s there with the best advice she can offer. If she can’t give you any advice she will listen. Renee is very loyal to those that she has let into her world and heart.

Jerrod Moore

I met an old lady or elder that followed most of the values and who was a really good role model for me and many others. She is wise and never has anything bad to say. She always moves forward with a smile and is a really cool person.

Steve Rabbit

My grandmother is the perfect example for this because she always taught me to treat other people the way I would want to be treated. She taught me to respect the people who respect you, no matter what age, gender, race, or ethnicity. She said “All people are born equal. No one is born to hate. They may be taught to hate at a certain age. No one is born better than anyone else….except Niijis.” She was kidding about the last part but the point she’s trying to get at is that we all bleed red and everyone has an equal chance to make it somewhere. The point of this is to show what my Grandma taught me: to respect everything and everyone.

Nindonis Robinson

My Grandmother Shirley Raish lived her life this way. She was a great woman whom I admire, even posthumously. Her everyday life reflected these values. She also made sure that her grandchildren understood how vital it is to our culture that young people practice these values. Without her guidance I’d be an inconsiderate person. She helped many young people to learn how to be Anishinabe. I miss my grandmother every day.
Talking Circles

Greeting to All!

My name is Karen Anoka and I provide case management services for clients seeking behavioral health services who are experiencing Domestic Violence/Intimate Partner Violence and clients who are in need of Suicide Prevention assistance. I work in collaboration with many resources on the reservation. A little about me, I recently graduated from Walden University in November 2012 with my Bachelor’s of Science in Psychology. I have always had a passion to help others whether is just be an ear for someone to talk to or helping other’s with resources in the area. My passion is helping others and giving what I can to assist others in their time of need.

I will be providing two talking circles, one for Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence and one for Suicide Prevention. These talking circles will be held two times a month with a spiritual advisor present. A light meal will be provided and craft supplies will assist with the healing of clients experiencing Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence, or Suicide survivors or survivors of Suicide.

Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence is a huge issue and getting the help needed is a priority of mine and will assist any clients that are referred with the best possible care and coordination of services.

Suicide prevention is also a huge issue, the Minnesota Department of Health has a link to data that was collected in 2011 and shows county numbers and areas of risk. Take a look, this information was interesting to me and I did not know there was such a high risk of suicide in and around our community today. MDH Data Brief link: http://www.health.state.mn.us/injury/docs/suicide/suicide_data_brief_2011.pdf

I am looking forward to my duties here in the Behavioral Health program with the Health Division. Any questions please feel free to call me on my office or cell, or email. Thank you all and Happy upcoming Holidays!

Secretary/Treasurer’s Report January, 2014

Boozhoo and Happy New Year to all! It has been a cold winter so far and I hope you all are keeping warm. I would like to take this time to update all Band members on the activities undertaken over the past quarter.

Settlements & Disbursements

In December, the Tribal Council authorized the disbursement of the Salazar Settlement, which was approximately $3.5 million, along with the Tax Rebate to Band Members under the Band’s Tax Agreement. These distributions totaled $575 for each Band Member. The Band continues to have Settlement dollars available for future disbursements or investments. These dollars include the Powerline settlement of $1.5 million, the Nelson Act settlement of $2,452,280 and the Enbridge Account still has $4,072,578 (including TERO portion). We have also set aside $76,000 for Education incentives.

Taxes

Under the Tribal-State Tax Agreement, the State collects all taxes and then, using the formulas in the Agreement, the State reimburses the Band various portions of sales, tobacco, alcohol and gasoline taxes. As I have reported in the past, the Band and the State continue to have a dispute over the tobacco tax, and the State continues to withhold that tax from the Band. However, both the Band and the State continue to have open dialogue and progress is being made.

We recently learned that the State has underpaid the Band our share of sales taxes for several years. The Band has successfully received $2 million that it should have received over the years the State miscalculated our share of sales taxes collected on the Reservation. Furthermore, progress is being made with regard to the Health Impact Fee imposed by the State. The Band continues to fight for its rightful share of those dollars collected by the State during that time.

FINANCES

LLBO Budget

We are approximately half way through Fiscal Year 2014, which runs from July 1, 2013 to June 30, 2014. We continue to monitor our spending to ensure that we do not overspend for this Fiscal Year.

Work on the Fiscal Year 2015 Budget is continuing. The Budget Team has worked with Division Directors to present a FY ’15 Budget that is balanced and meets the requirements of the Budget Ordinance. We will work diligently to follow the Budget Ordinance and hope to hold meetings in each of the districts within the next several weeks.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Economic Development continues to be one of my top priorities. Work is continuing on diversifying our operations so we can end our reliance on gaming dollars. We are also continuing the groundwork for establishing a separate corporation, so business decisions can be made with business in mind, not politics. I also continue to work for business diversification on the eastern side of the Reservation, where opening a gas station will create jobs, new revenue, and a new source of tax income for the Reservation as a whole.

LAND

Fee to Trust

As everyone knows, one of my top priorities is expanding our land base and placing land into trust.

Over the past several months, we have built a very good working relationship with the Bureau of Indian Affairs Realty Office. We have moved two parcels through the fee-to-trust process: the former World of Christmas property, and the property known as “Antler’s Ridge,” in the area north and east of the Northern Lights Casino. Both parcels should go into trust later this month.

We are stepping up our overall efforts in fee-to-trust. For many years, the Band would submit an application to place a parcel of land into trust, and the Bureau would reject it for one reason or another. These previously rejected applications account for more than 700 acres of land. We have consolidated these parcels into six new applications and will re-submit these applications soon. We will follow-through and ensure that each of these parcels are placed into trust within the next several months.

Restoring Our Homelands

Another priority I have is to restore our Reservation lands by returning lands improperly taken from the Band. For decades, we have known that the Department of Interior improperly transferred several thousand acres of Reservation land to the US Forest Service through a process known as “Secretarial Transfers”. Through work at our DRM, we are in the final stages of identifying each of these parcels.

The Department of Interior has committed to working with the Band to get these lands back to the Reservation. We are working with the US Forest Service for their commitment as well. Congressman Rick Nolan has agreed to introduce legislation to have these lands returned to the Band in trust status. When this is complete, the Band’s land base will nearly double.

There are still many hurdles, but the first stages have been very successful and I am hopeful that we will see real progress on this issue in the next several months.

These are some of the things we have been working on over the last quarter. If you have any questions at any time, please do not hesitate to contact me at (218) 335-8200. It is a privilege to serve as your Secretary-Treasurer and I appreciate hearing your comments on how to make our Reservation a better place.

Quarterly Newsletter

Anin!! I hope everyone enjoyed their holidays and spent valuable time with their loved ones. As we approach another year I hope everyone has a healthy and prosperous one. Since our last quarterly report the divisions and RBC have been diligently working on several new and continuous projects that have and will benefit the livelihood of the people of the Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe.

October was the beginning of our always busy holiday season. Many of our Local Indian Councils began plans for their community events and other projects held during this time of year. These LIC’s depended upon an increase in the communication between the RBC and each unique community they represent. Now more than ever the RBC and the divisions are depending on these councils to deliver different services to each community. Recently the RBC and its executive staff have incorporated supportive policies to ensure the individuals elected to these positions are fully supported by the Leech Lake Tribal Council and its departments to fulfill their leadership duties within their communities. Policies include paid leave when called upon if the individual is employed by the band, Leech Lake Gaming or a participant of Leech Lake Temporary Employment. Supporting the employees of our organization is vitally important to our work environment and improvement of our organization.

The Leech Lake Financial Services Department had also incorporated another supportive service to the employees of the Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe. Previously, employees could apply for loans by using their leave hours available up to $1,000.00. The LLFS department has now incorporated a new policy that allows employees to borrow any amount as long as the individual has the leave hours for collateral.

Winter season always brings wear and tear on our employees vehicles especially the tires that have many miles to travel for several of our dedicated employees. Once again, the RBC and Leech Lake Transportation have teamed together to offer the opportunity to employees to purchase tires for their vehicles through a payroll deduction. For more information contact your district representatives office.

In the month of November we finalized the payments to contractors and performed the last details to make the move to the beautifully constructed government center. This building currently houses our offices and the executive staff but will be also be home to other division in the future. Planning has begun to place other divisions in the government center.

Turkey’s were delivered the week of Thanksgiving to band members living on or near the reservation to ensure families could enjoy holiday feasts with their loved ones. I would like to personally thank the Local Indian Councils of the District 2 area and the employees of LLTEP for delivering this gift to the families of LLBO members. These committee members and employees are called upon during these times to assure all band members are served. An average of 75 turkey’s were delivered in the three areas covered by LIC’s which are as follows: Bena, Sugar Point and Boy Lake/Kego Lake/Smokey Point. Once again, chi -miigwetch to everyone that helped with this event.

In a council meeting in November the RBC passed a resolution to recognize a uniform age of 55 and older as the elder age for services offered by programs directly from the Leech Lake Band. This resolution was considered to help with some of the confusion of the age of an elder. The band has estimated 1,700 will be added to the population covered by several programs that offer services to elders. These programs include but are not limited to Tribal Assistance program, Community Services, Elder Assistance Program, Small Engine repair shop, Leech Lake DMV and many other direct benefits. Please contact your district office with any questions you may have on this resolution and services you may be entitled to.

The Christmas holiday brings the images of family and smiling faces of children receiving gifts from Santa. For the second year in a row the employees of LLBO, LL Tribal Council, LL Gaming division and the Walking Shield organization have made this possible for several families and their children. Over $50,000 was used to purchase toys for the “Toys for Kids” event held on December 21st in Bena and December 23rd in Cass Lake. An estimated 1,800 children were provided with a gift valued at an average of $25 each gift. Each site also had “surprise” drawings that included the opportunity at a chance to win gifts such as: Xbox one, PlayStation 4, Nabi tablets, WiiU and small Cars themed televisions. Several staff members who volunteered at the event gave their Saturday to assist. The dedicated staff that donated their time commented, “It’s Christmas and it just feels good to help with an event for kids.” This program was developed last year due to the loss of the Toys for Tots program that no longer serves this area. Since then it has been a pleasure working with these dedicated individuals and watching employees come together for such a great cause. Being part of events such as this makes the holidays much more enjoyable. Thank you to everyone who donated and volunteered to make this event a success.

District II members that have not received their $575 Tax Rebate/Salazar Settlement, please contact District 2 Office for assistance.

District II Calendar

The District II office would also like to announce that their District II calendar has finished printing a limited amount. Those that would like a DII calendar can pick them up at the District II office at the new RBC building in Cass Lake, located next to Che-We.

The Leech Lake Lynx 4th grade basketball team took 1st place in the Northwood’s Tournament Series in Blackduck on Sat. Jan. 11, 2014.

They played three games in the tournament: Grand Rapids, Blackduck, and Deer River.

Special Thanks to Coach Kristen Brown for taking the time to work with these girls and the parents for all their support.
